

- Home
- Attend
- Exhibit
- Film
- Interactive
- Music
- Forums
- Archive
- Registrant Directory
- Merchandise
- Contact
- About SXSW

SXSW 2003 Film Festival Screenings

Tom Dowd & the Language of Music

*Documentary Feature
Screening in Special Screenings
Regional Premiere*

This film profiles the work of legendary music producer/recording engineer Tom Dowd and offers a rare glimpse into the history of the music making process. Including exclusive interviews with many world renowned recording artists, the film illustrates the symbiotic relationships between artist, producer and engineer in making hit records.

Visit Website

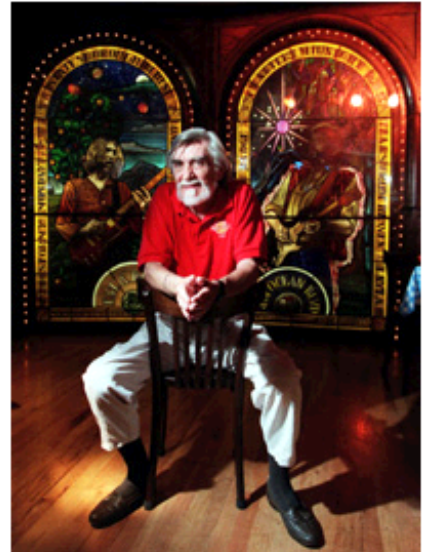

Saturday March 8

Wednesday March 12
12:00 NOON - Convention Center

Friday March 14
12:00 NOON - Convention Center

Everything subject to change.

Total program length: 91 mins

Director: Mark Moormann
Producers: Mark Moormann, Scott Gordon, Mark Hunt
Cast: Tom Dowd, Eric Clapton, Ray Charles, The Allman Brothers Band, Les Paul, Aretha Franklin, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Ahmet Ertegun, Phil Ramone, Arif Mardin, Mike Stoller, Al Schmitt, Joe Bonamassa

Director of Photography: Pat Longman

Director's Bio: Mark Moormann is a Miami-based filmmaker with extensive cinematography and directing credits on documentaries, music videos, commercials, and interactive media. He was director of photography and editor of the independent documentaries "Once Upon a Time on South Beach," "Hidden Rivers of the Maya," and "Moonlighting in Haiti."